

Columbus on March 31. It will be held at the fairgrounds there and as the name implies-anything on wheels might show up. They have 28 classes to enter, including one for "ugly". Do they mean cars or what?

BITS & PIECES

A flier from the Deep South Rod Run next month in Birmingham notes a change in the location this year. It will be at the Birmingham Horse racing facility rather than at the old fairgrounds....I have plenty of entry blanks for the upcoming show in Meridian. As usual, they are giving away some nice cash prizes for those who pre register. More details on it next month.....The scheduled appearance of our cars at Whitten Jr. High School's career day was canceled due to the heavy rains that day....We won a trophy for our appearance in the Dixie National Parade a few weeks back. We had 11 cars and trucks in the parade. Most of them went to Vicksburg after the parade to the mall show at Pemberton Mall....Lonnie Cox calls from McComb to tell us he needs some streetrods for the Azalea festival parade at 10 a.m. March 24 in McComb. If any of you can go, please do so.

GARAGE SCENE

Roundman has Half-round's coupe body back on the new frame. They are trying to put some hidden door hinges on it. Hopefully, they won't hide the door handles or Half-round will never be able to get in the thing. They say they'll be ready in time to go to McComb.....The day I visited, Harold Thornton was there working on his '46 Plymouth sedan. Won't be too long before he has it on the road.....Sam Hupperich had his car all together for the first time at the cruise Saturday night. It really looks good. All that hard work really shows....We have the pickup back on wheels with the engine in it. All the front cap has been fitted together and taken apart again. Brian is almost finished sanding the bed, so it's beginning to look like a truck again.....Wayne Thomas has his '37 in the body/paint shop. It will soon be out with a new color for this season.....Wayne Powell tells us he's still working on his '40 Ford. It's been down so long, most of the club members never even saw it when it was running. Don't get near him or he'll hand you a piece of sandpaper..... Charlie Murray is planning on putting a dropped axle under his '35 coupe as soon as the road to his shop dries out enough for him to get to it.....Tommy Nichols has decided to concentrate on his '46 Chevy pickup, so he's selling his Ford. It is advertised elsewhere in this newsletter.

DIXIE RUN PREPARATIONS

At our last club meeting, we began to make plans for Dixie Run 12 June 15-17. Duties and trophy construction responsibilities were assigned. The games were discussed and will be determined next meeting. Those of you who ran a game last year, try to come up with something new or at least a change in the old way of playing it for this year. Be prepared to discuss it at the next meeting. Here is a list of those things we settled:

Several of you were not present to pick your trophy but don't let that stop you from making one. Make up your own category and let me know what it is so I can add it to the list. Use your imagination, the more trophies the better. For example, how about one for favorite primer, or favorite wheels, or best body modifications, or ugliest driver. Just be prepared to deal with him or her if you pick that one.

Because of the tight space we have to work in, the driving games this year must be a non-speed type of game. If you can adapt last year's games to slow them down, go ahead. We'd like to stress change in all the games, people get tired of doing the same old thing every year.. Put your mind to it and come up with some new variations.

Don't forget, everyone is responsible for 5 door prizes for the auction.

THINGS TO DO IN MARCH

Ready or not, the season is upon us. March weekends are so full of activity, you even have a choice of places to go some weekends. And if the March schedule is not bad enough, look on down at the May schedule.... Some of us are going to Brookhaven to the show at King-Salyer. That $500 grand prize is just too nice to pass up. We'll leave Byram Texaco at about 8. The show is on their car lot just off Brookway, which is the second Brookhaven exit off I55....If you plan to go to the rod run in Houma, be prepared for a looooooonnnng ride. Roundman went last year and he says the ride was worth it..... The open show scheduled on the 24th at the reservoir is sponsored by the local Camaro club. The flier says they will be giving dash plaques plus trophies in six or seven classes. Entry is $12 advance or $15 at the gate..... The New Orleans run scheduled the last weekend of March always has plenty of sharp, new high dollar cars. It is held at the Holiday Inn just off I10 in Covington, La.....Roundman has fliers on the open show in
